

DECLARATION OF ESTIMATED INCOME TAX DUE – THE REQUIREMENTS

WHO MUST FILE AND PAY ESTIMATED INCOME TAX FOR THE CURRENT YEAR?

Any individual who has income that is subject to Trotwood tax, and any of the following apply:

- You are a resident of Trotwood and work in a city or village that is subject to either no tax withholding or a lower tax rate withheld (or work in a township where no tax is withheld)
- You are a resident of Trotwood and are self employed (filing a Schedule C on your Federal Tax Return) and perform work in Trotwood or work in a city or village where you are paying a lower rate of city tax on income earned (or no tax at all for work performed in a township); or a non-resident of Trotwood with self-employment income earned in Trotwood;
- You own rental property in Trotwood, regardless of residency;
- You have any similar type of situation where your income is not fully withheld on and you have a balance due of Trotwood tax.

You are required to pay estimated tax due for the current year as you earn income. For every person who anticipates taxable income during the current year which is not fully withheld on (or may be from self-employment, rental activity, or other business activity) resulting in a tax due to Trotwood, a Declaration must be filed by April 17th of each year which shows the amount anticipated to be due. The estimated tax due must be paid in quarterly installments, with at least 90% of the total amount anticipated to be due PAID IN FULL by the final installment date. The payment due dates are as shown below:

DUE DATE	QUARTER	PERIOD COVERED
April 17	1st Quarter	Income earned January through March
July 31	2nd Quarter	Income earned April through June
October 31	3rd Quarter	Income earned July through September
January 31	4th Quarter	Income earned October through December

Methods of calculating estimated tax due:

- You may pay an amount equal to the amount due in the previous tax year. By paying 100% of the previous year liability in quarterly estimated tax payments, you will not be penalized for underpayment should your income be increased in the current year. You must file an annual income tax return by April 17th and pay any additional tax due in full. (Known as “safe harbor”).
- If you know what your anticipated income will be for 2012, you can base your estimate on that anticipated income amount. Using that figure, you can determine an equal quarterly amount for remittance for each period.
- You may calculate your quarterly amount due based on wages or income earned during the quarter. For example, you can calculate what you would owe for first quarter based on actual income from January, February and March. Each quarterly amount remitted may not be equal, depending upon the amount of income earned during each period.

THE CALCULATION FOR ESTIMATED TAX AND FIRST QUARTER DUE is part of the 2011 return, lines 10-13. You must complete this section to determine if you owe estimated tax. Your first quarter payment will be remitted with your tax return, in addition to any payment in full for tax due for 2012. IMPORTANT!!! FAILURE TO FILE AND PAY QUARTERLY ESTIMATED TAX DUE WILL RESULT IN PENALTY AND INTEREST ASSESSED. THIS IS A MANDATORY REQUIREMENT.
